

LASVEGAS SUN.COM

THE BEST OF OUR EXCLUSIVE STORIES, PHOTOGRAPHY, VIDEO AND MULTIMEDIA — EVERY DAY.

Poll results

Do you expect to see benefits from the health reform law signed by President Barack Obama? Of those who responded, 28 percent said yes, 71 percent said no. See more polls at lasvegassun.com/polls.

Stay informed

Find updates on local, state and national politics at lasvegassun.com/politics.

In his blood

After bouncing around during his first season at UNLV, senior Calvin Randleman has worked his way to the top of the Rebels' defensive depth chart. This summer, he hopes to fine-tune his linebacking skills by training with his father — former UFC heavy-weight champion Kevin Randleman. Find more at lasvegassun.com/rebels.

The Kats Report

There has been a change in ownership of the venue known as Wyrick Theatre at Miracle Mile Shops. In the Kats Report, John Katsilometes talks with new owner David Saxe about his plans at the luckless showroom. Read more at lasvegassun.com/kats.

THE SUN'S MOST READ STORIES*

- 1 Titus' office morphs into housing counseling center. For congresswoman, helping underwater Las Vegas makes sense.
- 2 Will attacks on Lowden make up ground for Reid? Democrats have field day with GOP front-runner's 'bartering' comment.
- 3 Jake Shields upsets Dan Henderson. Brawl follows Strikeforce title fight; Melendez and Lawal also victorious.
- 4 Reba McEntire, Keith Urban and Miranda Lambert rehearse for ACM Awards. Show a giant of an entertainment spectacle.
- 5 As spring football concludes, Hauck, players see plenty of work ahead. Several questions remain before fall camp.

*As of 1 p.m. Monday

On 'Lower premiums, medical costs can't get here fast enough for family' from green617:

"I find it interesting that people still believe if the government passes a law that increases regulation it will reduce costs. When the government deregulated the airline industry did airfares go up? I pity the fool that thinks the government is going to save them from anything."