

in the know current

o n e 2 know

The Bank at Bellagio is gorgeous, tons of fun and always has a great crowd. I love the layout of the club—the way it is designed around the dance floor. The VIP booths are beautiful and very open. The music is always off the hook, and the service is impeccable. —Poker player, model and actress Christina Lindley

Club Etiquette

Moon and Playboy Club VIP host J-Roc shares some tips with visitors.

What comes with bottle service?

Bottle service is really the way to go. With bottle service, you get your own table to sit at, stand and dance on and party at all night. The cocktail waitress makes your drinks, you have bottle runners to clean up after you spill your vodka Red Bulls and VIP hosts cater to your every need.

Is it harder for men to get into a club than women?

Yeah, it's 100 percent easier for a group of women. Sorry, guys, I feel your pain. It always has been and always will be easier for the girls. I think the main reason is miniskirts.

What's the best way to get the doorman's attention?

Not yelling at them would be great. You get noticed more when you're patient.

5,000

Pairs of drumsticks being given out Sunday night, June 20, at the inaugural Drum Circle Festival at Neonopolis Downtown. Drum star Charlie Adams leads the circle.

Vince Neil fans have something new to rejoice in: The venerable rock icon is releasing a new album this month. Tattoos & Tequila features the Mötley Crüe frontman covering a variety of rock classics, and introducing two new songs: "Tattoos & Tequila" and "Another Bad Day." "Tattoos & Tequila" is out as a single right now, and the album is being released June 22. If you just can't wait to get a taste of Neil, head to his Vegas tattoo shops, Vince Neil Ink at Rio and O'Sheas.

FIVE SURE BETS

- Father's Day gift baskets at Sugar Factory (Miracle Mile Shops)
- Human Nature's Toby Allen
- Greek pizza at Spago
- Penn & Teller's magic bullets
- Cocktails at Cleopatra's Barge at Caesars