ISLAND FEVER

Naming your restaurant Hawaiian Tropic Zone brings with it a built-in reputation, and it pretty much involves hot servers, known as "table concierges," looking downright scalding in next-to-nothing swimsuits. ¶ At Miracle Mile Shops, the action gets Torrid (702.731.4858) on Friday and Saturday nights as the bar and Stripside patio transform into one of the city's wildest parties with drink specials, go-go dancers, celebrity hosts and, yes, lots of scantily clad women. ¶ A DJ assists the action and bottle service is available, but all eyes are on the catwalk where, if you're good, the servers take part in nightly beauty pageants. ¶ It's like you've died and gone to Hawaii.—JACK HOUSTON
