GUESS WHAT?

One of the premier shopping experiences in Las Vegas, Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood Resort recently celebrated the grand opening of Guess Accessory, a boutique designed with the individual in mind. Whether you're looking for chic new footwear or a funky watch to decorate your wrist, it's here in Las Vegas' first Guess Accessory. Eyewear, jewelry, handbags and luggage are also featured at the hip shop, a venue that perfectly continues the mission of brothers Paul and Maurice Marciano, who in the early '80s introduced Guess, which brought a sensual style to staid old denim. Now that you know what, guess who will be next to pop into the shop—it's you. —NINA KING
