Linkin Park fans, some of whom were up as early as 4 a.m., flooded the Miracle Mile Shops for a meet-and-greet with the band at frontman Chester Bennington's Club Tattoo on Saturday. Really, 4 a.m.? For Linkin Park? That can't be right, can it? Was there some confusion that it might be a "Meet Linkin Park and also get a free fifth of Maker's Mark" event? Because that, we could totally understand.
