

Vegas Player Fall / Winter (December) 2010

SCENE & HEARD

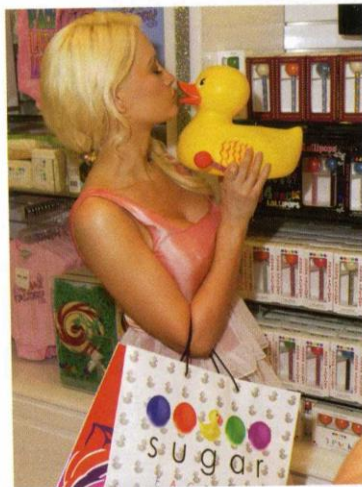

In town for a charity poker event, actor Matt Damon hit up Martorano's inside the Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino. After dining on meatballs and pasta, he signed the wall and told owner Steve Martorano, "You kill it every time."

Sammy Hagar surprised fans at a pre-concert party at Cabo Wabo Cantina inside Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood. He performed a 12-song set which included the hits "Only One Way To Rock," "55" and "Mas Tequila," before closing with "Why Can't This Be Love."

STARCATCHER Celebrities On the Strip

In honor of National Lollipop Day, Holly Madison debuted Sugar Factory's signature "Vegas" edition Couture Pops at Paris Las Vegas, then got playful for the cameras, at the Miracle Mile Shops candy store.

Acclaimed Elvis Presley tribute artist Pete "Big Elvis" Vallee married Amanda Lasham at Bill's Gamblin' Hall & Saloon on the very stage he's been performing on for the past eight years.

Imperial Palace star Frank Marino received a cake for his legendary impersonation of Joan Rivers. Marino's channeling of the entertainment