

Sunseeker

March / April 2010

If you're in Vegas looking for good food in a rockin' atmosphere, there's only one place to go: Cabo Wabo Cantina.

Sammy Hagar's world-famous restaurant and nightclub, which transformed Cabo San Lucas' Mexican beaches in 1990, recently opened a new location inside the Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood. The two-level, 15,000-square-foot cantina, complete with its own Strip-front patio, offers the same laid-back attitude as its Mexico counterpart.

"Las Vegas was getting too glitzy for me," Hagar told Sunseeker. "Everyone was always trying to outshine each other. At Cabo Wabo it's come one, come all—not just the beautiful people. It's a place where you can let your hair down and wear flip-flops and tank tops; we welcome everyone."

A tasty blend of Tex-Mex and coastal Mexican fare, Cabo Wabo features famous beef, chicken, shrimp and veggie fajitas as well as Cadillac nachos and churros. Guests can enjoy an array of margaritas, including the restaurant's signature Waborita—a mixture of lime juice, Cointreau, a splash of Grand Marnier and Cabo Wabo Tequila. For those looking for something fruitier, Cabo Wabo's Cactus Pear Margarita—Cabo Wabo Blanco Tequila, triple sec, fresh cactus pear purée, Monin Desert Pear Syrup and fresh lemon and lime juice—hits the spot.

As if the mouthwatering menu and tasty libations weren't enough, the cantina is also known for its free live music on the weekends. Guests never know who might perform, even Hagar himself has been known to take the stage. "I play in Cabo all the time for free 'cause I love it, and it's a lot easier to jump on a plane and get to Las Vegas."

Cabo Wabo Cantina serves lunch, dinner and a late-night menu. Call 702-385-2226 or visit www.cabowabocantina.lv.com

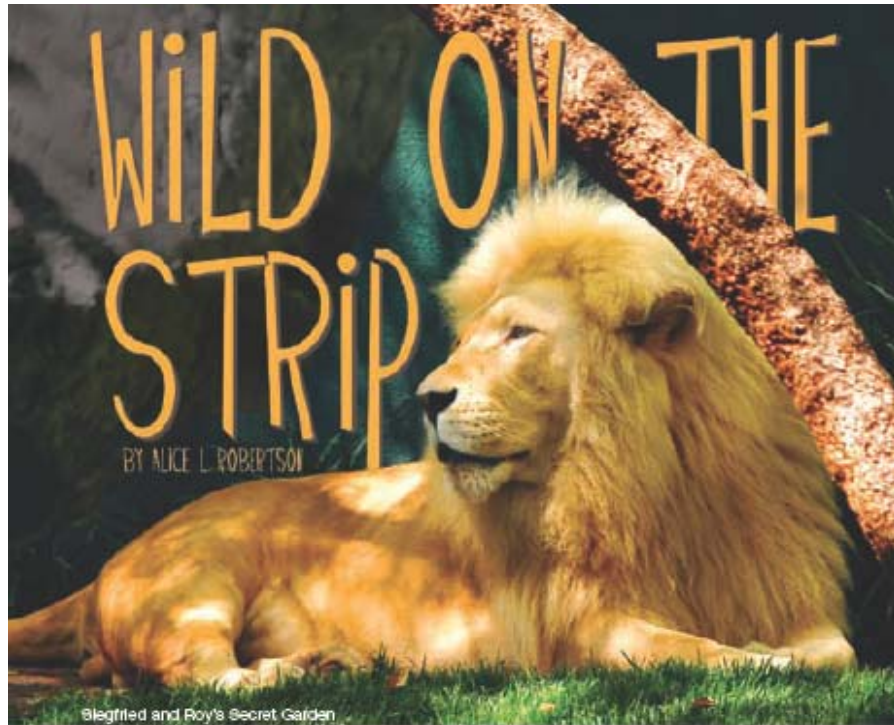

Red Pepper Sangrita

Photos courtesy of Cabo Wabo Cantina photos by Carlos Larios

Sunseeker

March / April 2010

While the Las Vegas Strip is full of party animals, there is another side of the city that offers real wildlife. Here is a look at where to catch the action.

LIONS, TIGERS AND FLAMINGOS, OH MY!

Visit lions at the MGM Grand Lion Habitat where naturalists are available to answer questions about the king of the jungle. You can even get your picture taken with the lions if they're in a good mood. Stop by the Flamingo Hotel and Casino to visit the Wildlife Habitat where you will find pink flamingos, along with exotic fish and birds. This 15-acre tropical retreat is located near the buffet. Across the street you will find lions, tigers, panthers and dolphins at Siegfried & Roy's Secret Garden and Dolphin Habitat at The Mirage. If you're lucky you may see a White Lion cub or baby Bottlenose dolphin out at play.

FISHING AROUND

Stop by the shark tank at the Golden Nugget in the downtown area or gaze at the amazing fish in the aquarium behind the hotel desk in The Mirage. For a real adventure, visit Shark Reef Aquarium at Mandalay Bay. Walk through the replica of ancient ruins filled with golden crocodiles, Komodo dragons, giant rays, sawfish, piranha and moon jellyfish. Check out the sharks in the tunnel aquarium and shipwreck.

WILD ONSTAGE

Want to take in a "wild" show? Check out Gregory Popovich's Comedy Pet Theatre, an afternoon show featuring dogs and cats rescued from animal shelters. They perform at the V Theater in the Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood. Magician Rick Thomas at the Sahara features white tigers and dazzling magic. Lance Burton's show at the Monte Carlo involves animals that help him with his magical performances.

