LAS VEGAS (Sept 21, 2026) - Get ready to fight for survival. Sandbox VR Las Vegas at Miracle Mile Shops is bringing its newest virtual reality adventure, Deadwood Origins, to players beginning Sept. 25, with bookings now open.

The fourth installment in the Deadwood zombie series transports teams of up to six players into a remote jungle village that has mysteriously gone dark. Players take on the role of an elite security squad tasked with escorting a disease specialist, but when infected wildlife attacks their aircraft, the mission quickly turns into a fight for survival. From a crash site and abandoned village to a moving gondola and the ruins of an ancient temple, players must work together to battle undead enemies, infected monkeys, bats and a massive serpent while searching for a way to escape.

Powered by Sandbox VR's proprietary full-body virtual reality technology, Deadwood Origins combines motion tracking, haptic vests, headsets and physical props to create a shared, cinematic experience. Players can see and interact with their teammates in real time, making every close call, rescue and surprise part of the adventure.

Located at Miracle Mile Shops, Sandbox VR Las Vegas offers an immersive alternative to traditional gaming and at-home VR, placing guests directly inside cinematic worlds where they can move freely, interact naturally and experience tactile feedback alongside friends, family and teammates.

Bookings for the experience are now open. For more information and to plan your adventure, visit <https://www.miraclemileshops.com/entertainment/sandbox-vr/>.
